How We May Use and Disclose Health Information About You

- The following categories describe different ways that we use and disclose health information.
- For each category of uses or disclosures, we will explain what we mean and may give examples. Not every use or disclosure in a category will be listed. However, all of the ways we are permitted to use and disclose information will fall within one of the categories.
- For Treatment
 - We may use health information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services.
 - We may disclose health information about you to doctors, nurses, technologists, therapists, affiliated personnel who are involved in taking care of you.
 - For example, a doctor treating you for a broken leg may need to know if you have diabetes because diabetes may slow the healing process. In addition, the doctor may need to tell the dietitian so that we can arrange appropriate meals.
 - Different departments of Tower Health may share health information about you in order to coordinate the different things you need, such as prescriptions, lab tests and x-rays.
 - We also may disclose health information about you to people outside Tower Health who may be involved in your medical care after you leave a Tower Health-affiliated hospital, such as family members, clergy or others we use to provide services that are part of your care.
 - We may use and disclose health information about you so that the treatment and services

This describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed, and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Notice of Privacy Practices

Our Pledge Regarding Health Information
We understand that information about you and your health is personal. We are committed to protecting your health information. We create a record of the care and services you receive throughout Tower Health. We need this record to provide you with quality care and to comply with legal requirements. This notice applies to all of the records of your care generated by Tower Health entities.

This notice will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose health information about you. It also describes your rights and certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of health information.

Who Will Follow This Notice
The terms of this Notice of Privacy Practices apply to the following entities owned and operated by and/or affiliated with Tower Health, participating in an organized healthcare arrangement: Brandywine Hospital, Chestnut Hill Hospital, Jennersville Hospital, Phoenixville Hospital, Pottstown Hospital, Reading Hospital (including Reading Hospital Rehabilitation at Wyomissing), Tower Health at Home, Tower Health Urgent Care, Tower Health Medical Group and their respective outpatient departments and facilities; and the physicians, licensed professionals, employees, contractors, volunteers and trainees seeing and treating patients at each of these care settings. These entities may share protected health information (PHI) with each other as necessary to carry out treatment, payment or healthcare operations relating to the organized healthcare arrangement unless otherwise limited by law, rule or regulation. This Notice of Privacy Practice does not apply when visiting a non-affiliated office practice.

is currently taking/being prescribed;

- communications that involve general health promotion, such as community events, and health screenings;
- communications about case management and helping you find a physician, rather than the promotion of a specific product or service;
- communications about government and government-sponsored programs.

Hospital Directory

- Unless you tell us that you object, we may include certain limited information about you in the hospital directory while you are a patient at Brandywine Hospital, Chestnut Hill Hospital, Jennersville Hospital, Phoenixville Hospital, Pottstown Hospital, Reading Hospital or Reading Hospital Rehabilitation at Wyomissing. This information may include your name, location in the hospital, your general condition (good, fair, poor, critical) and your religious affiliation. It may be released to the clergy or other people who ask for you by name. This directory information is so that family, friends and the clergy can visit you in the hospital and generally know how you are doing.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care

- We may release health information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your care.
- We may also tell your family or friends your condition and that you are in the hospital.
- In addition, we may disclose health information about you to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your condition, status and location.

Research

- Under certain circumstances, we may use and disclose health information about you for research purposes.

For example, a research project may involve comparing the health and recovery of all patients who received one medication to those who received another for the same condition. All research projects; however, are subject to a special approval process. This process evaluates a proposed research project and its use of health information, trying to balance the research needs with patients' need for privacy of their health information. Before we use or disclose health information for research, the project will have been approved through this research approval process.

- We may; however, disclose health information about you to people preparing to conduct a research project to help them look for patients with specific medical needs, so long as the health information they review does not leave Tower Health.
- We will almost always ask for your specific permission if the researcher will have access to your name, address or other information that reveals who you are or who will be involved in your care at Tower Health.

As Required by Law

- We will disclose health information about you when required to do so by federal, state or local law.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety

- We may use and disclose health information about you when necessary to prevent serious threat to your health and safety, or to the health and safety of the public or another person. Any disclosure; however, would only be to someone who is able to help prevent the threat.

Special Situations

Business Associates

- We contract with certain outside persons or organizations to perform certain services on our behalf, such as auditing, accreditation, legal services, etc. At times it may be necessary for us to provide your PHI to one or more of these outside persons or organizations. In such cases, we require these business associates, and any of their subcontractors, to enter into written agreements to require the business associate to appropriately safeguard the privacy of your information.

Organ and Tissue Donation

- If you are an organ donor, we may release health information to organizations that handle organ procurement or organ, eye or tissue transplantation, or to an organ donation bank in order to facilitate organ or tissue donation and transplantation.

include a reason to support the request.

- In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:
 - was not created by us, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment;
 - is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
 - is accurate and complete.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures

- You have the right to request an "accounting of disclosures." This is a list of the disclosures we made of health information about you.
- To request this list or accounting of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to the Privacy Officer at the affiliated hospital. Your request must state a time period which may not be longer than six years and may not include dates before April 14, 2003. Your request should indicate in what form you want the list – on-paper or electronic copy.
- The first list you request within a 12-month period will be free.
- For additional lists, we may charge you for the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred.

Right to Breach Notification

- We are required to notify you in writing of any breach of your unsecured PHI without unreasonable delay, but in any event, no later than 60 days after we discover the breach.

Right to Request Restrictions

- You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the health information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment or healthcare operations.
- You also have the right to request a limit on the health information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care, such as a family member or friend.

For example, you could ask that we not use or disclose information about a surgery that you had.

Military and Veterans

- If you are a member of the armed forces, we may release health information about you as required by military command authorities.
- We may also release health information about foreign military personnel to the appropriate foreign military authority.

Workers' Compensation

- We may release health information about you for workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.

Public Health Risks

- We may disclose health information about you for public health activities. These activities generally include the following:
- to prevent or control disease, injury or disability;
 - to report births and deaths;
 - to report child abuse or neglect;
 - to report reactions to medications or problems with products;
 - to notify people of recalls of products they may be using;
 - to notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease, or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease or condition;
 - to notify the appropriate government authority if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. We will make this disclosure only if you agree or when required or authorized by law.

Health Oversight Activities

- We may disclose health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These oversight activities include audits, investigations, inspections and licensure. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the healthcare system, government programs and compliance with civil rights laws.

Lawsuits and Disputes

- If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, we may disclose health information about you in response to a court or administrative order. We may also disclose health information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process by someone else involved in the dispute, but only if efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information requested.

- We are not required to agree to your request, unless you are requesting a restriction for services you have paid for in full out-of-pocket.
- To request restrictions, you must make your request in writing to the Director of Health Information Management at Tower Health.
- In your request, you must tell us:
 - what information you want to limit;
 - whether you want to limit our use, disclosure or both; and
 - to whom you want the limits to apply.For example, you may ask that we not disclose information to your spouse.

- Out-of-pocket payments

- If you paid out-of-pocket (in other words, you requested that we not bill your health plan) in full for a specific item or service, you have the right to ask that your Protected Health Information with respect to that item or service not be disclosed to a health plan for purposes of payment or healthcare operations. We will honor that request unless required by law not to.
- Two criteria must be met:
 - the purpose of the disclosure is for payment or healthcare operations and not otherwise required by law;
 - pertains solely to healthcare items or services for which the individual or other person other than the health plan paid the health plan in full.

Right to Request Confidential Communications

- You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location.

For example, you can ask that we contact you only at work or only by mail.

- To request confidential communications, you must make your request in writing to the Privacy Officer at the affiliated hospital. We will not ask you the reason for your request. We will accommodate all reasonable requests. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted.

Law Enforcement

We may release health information if asked to do so by a law enforcement official:

- in response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons or similar process;
- to identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person;
- about the victim of a crime if, under certain limited circumstances, we are unable to obtain the person's agreement;
- about a death we believe may be the result of criminal conduct;
- about criminal conduct that occurs on Tower Health property;
- in emergency circumstances to report a crime, the location or victims of the crime, or the identity, description or location of the person who committed the crime.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors

- We may release health information to a coroner or medical examiner. This may be necessary to identify a deceased person or determine the cause of death.
- We may also release health information about patients of Tower Health-affiliated hospitals to funeral directors as necessary to carry out their duties.

National Security and Intelligence Activities

- We may release health information about you to authorized federal officials for intelligence, counterintelligence and other national security activities authorized by law.

Protective Services for the President and Others

- We may disclose health information about you to authorized federal officials so they may provide protection to the President, other authorized persons or foreign heads of state or in order to conduct special investigations.

Inmates

- If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, we may release health information about you to the correctional institution or law enforcement official. This release would be necessary for the institution to provide you with healthcare and to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of others.

Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice

- You have the right to a paper copy of this notice.
- You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy of this notice.
- You may obtain a copy of this notice at our website: www.towerhealth.org.
 - To obtain a paper copy of this notice, contact the Privacy Officer at the affiliated hospital.

Changes to This Notice

We reserve the right to change this notice. We reserve the right to make the revised or changed notice effective for health information we already have about you as well as any information we receive in the future.

We will make easily available a copy of the current notice. The notice will contain the effective date on the cover, in the top right-hand corner.

In addition, each time you register at or are admitted to a Tower Health-affiliated hospital for treatment or healthcare services as an outpatient or inpatient, we will offer you a copy of the current notice in effect.

Complaints

You may file a complaint with us or with the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated.

To file a complaint with us, contact the Privacy Officer at the address listed in the "Addresses" section that follows. All complaints must be made in writing and should be submitted within 180 days of when you knew or should have known of the suspected violation. There will be no retaliation against you for filing a complaint.
