

STATEMENT OF PATIENT BILL OF RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

In recognition of the responsibility of this facility in the rendering of patient care, these rights and responsibilities are affirmed in the policies and procedures of the

Mt. Ogden Surgical Center, LLC

To receive services without regard to race, color, age, sex, sexual orientation, religion, marital status, handicap, national origin or sponsor.

To be provided a reasonable physical access.

To be provided a secure environment for self and property.

To be provided with appropriate privacy.

To be treated with respect, consideration, and dignity.

To have cultural, psychosocial, spiritual, and personal values, beliefs, and preferences respected.

To expect that all disclosures and records are treated confidentially, except when required by law, and to be given the opportunity to approve or refuse their release.

To be provided, to the degree known, complete information concerning their diagnosis, treatment, and prognosis. When it is medically inadvisable to give such information to a patient, the information is provided to a person designated by the patient to be a legally authorized person.

To be given the opportunity to participate in decisions involving their health care, including when involved in investigational studies and clinical trials, except when participation is contraindicated for medical reasons.

To receive from his/her physician information necessary to give informed consent prior to the start of any procedure and/or treatment, except in emergencies. Such information for informed consent should include the specific procedure and/or treatment, significant medical risks involved, and the probable duration of incapacitation. Where significant alternatives for medical care or treatment exist, or when the patient requests information concerning medical alternatives, the patient has the right to such information and the consequences of not complying with therapy. The patient has the right to know the name of the person responsible for the procedures and/or treatment. The patient may choose to involve family members in his or her care decisions.

To be informed, when appropriate, of treatment policy for an unemancipated minor not accompanied by an adult.

To appropriate assessment and management of pain.

To refuse treatment and be informed of consequences of refusing treatment or not complying with therapy.

To be informed as to:

- Expected conduct and responsibilities as a patient
- Services available from the facility
- Provisions for after-hours and emergency care
- Fees for services
- Payment policies
- Right to refuse participation in investigational studies or clinical trials
- Methods for expressing grievance and suggestions to the facility
- Disclosure of ownership
- Procedure for reporting public health concerns to the appropriate authorities
- Resolving conflicts about care decisions

To be informed of their rights to change primary or specialty physicians if other qualified physicians are available.

Patient Responsibilities

To providing accurate and complete information about complaints, past illnesses, hospitalizations, medications, advanced directives, and other matters of care.

To ask questions when they do not understand a contemplated treatment course or care decision.

To follow the care, treatment, and service plan developed; express any concerns about their ability to follow the proposed care plan or course of care, treatment, and services.

Patients and their families are responsible for the outcomes if they do not follow the care, treatment, and service plan.

To follow Mt. Ogden Surgical Center's rules and regulations.

To be considerate of the Center's staff and property, as well as other patients and their property.

To promptly meet any financial obligation agreed to with the Center.